

California Forest Pest Council

Dedicated to protecting California's forests since 1951

CFPC is a 501(c)3 non-profit educational organization — ID# 94-3248518

Visit us at www.caforestpestcouncil.org

California Forest Pest Council

2014 Weed/Insect/Disease/Animal Damage Tour DAY 2

All chemical rates are within label guidelines

10 min load and unload included in time at the stop.

Stop #:	Time	Activity	Speaker:
	7:30 - 9:00	Travel to FW Line off Big Bend Road
1	9:00 - 10:00	Tree Genetics - Demonstration of open collected, 1st generation NSTIA, 2nd generation NSTIA, Ponderosa Pine seed and growth potential. Roll of genetic improvement plantations.	Arnaldo Ferreira
2	10:00 - 10:10 10:10 - 11:10	10 Min Travel to Spray Demo Spray technique demonstration Spot Gun, Broadcast, Directed Release, Hack-n-squirt, Waving-Wand.	Sergio Mejia
3	11:10 - 12:10	Surprise spray Inspection demonstration on equipment and applicators. Laws and Regulations Update	Carl Yingst
4	12:10 - 12:20 12:20 - 1:20	10 Min Travel to Coop Extention Lunch with business meeting. Discussion of research plans for land aquired from PG&E	Bill Stewart
5	1:20 - 1:35 1:35 - 2:05	15 Min Travel to Moose Camp Road Fountain Fire Thinning - Effectiveness of late vegetation control on thinning by hand and mechanical effects on tree growth.	Ken Scott
6	2:05 - 2:20 2:20 - 3:20	15 Min Travel to Wendy Johnson's Private land owner. Efforts to reforest land and return some natural openings following a fire. Scotchbroom and blackberry eradication.	Wendy Johnson
7	3:20 - 3:30 3:30 - 4:00	10 Min Travel to Backbone Ridge Road Herbicide alternatives and timing of application for Blackberry control	Mike Aronson
8	4:00 - 4:05 4:05 - 4:35	5 Min Operational Test of Milestone/Hexazinone Combination. Second year Results.	Vanelle Peterson
	4:35 - 5:00	Return to Redding	