This year's tour will be hosted at the Emerald Dolphin Inn in Mendocino County, just west of Jackson State Forest along the coast. Discussion topics will cover: site prep, planting and release treatments in coastal forests. Though managers share common challenges in the region, each ownership has unique approaches. Herbicides play a key role. Specifically we will see:

- Vegetation and rodent management in progeny test sites
- Scenic highway right of way treatments in progeny test sites
 - Managing hardwoods in partial retention units
 - Test sites for promising new products
 - Invasive weeds

There will not be a golf tournament this year.

Note: The California Forest Pest Council Insect and Disease Field Tour will take place on Tuesday July 16.
